Dear Joe:

I have borrowed, from the display case in the lobby of Carbondale City Hall, the certificate from the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission attesting to the registration of Carbondale City Hall in the National Register of Historic Places. I did so in order to have some duplicate copies of it printed. In the mean time, one of the enclosed copies of that certificate can be placed in the display case in the lobby.

Thank you for having arranged the display in the display case in the lobby. It looks great. Given the nature of several of the objects on display, I wonder if it wouldn't be a good idea to have a lock installed on the display case?

Sincerely,
